THE LATE R. B. DEAR. The death of Mr. R. B. Dear, at Superior, Wis., was mentioned in the A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Gazette on Thursday last. One of the papers of that city says: Richard B. Dear, one of the most widely known contractors and mining men of the north, died on Sanday at the family residence, where a week bc-fore he had undergone an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Dear was nearly 60 years old st the time of his demise and had claimed Superior as his home city for the past quarter of a century. He was born to Aldee, Virginia, April 12, 1850. Bu: vivore. Mr. Dear was a hard and conscientions worker and success was the result. Soon after crossing the Mississippi he was a trader at the Pine Ridge Indian agency, being appointed by the government. There he became acquainted with the Indians and now famous pio-

Among the important pieces of work that he has had charge of was the Taft tunnel in Montans which was completed only last year. Mr. Dear took great pride in this piece of work. He also supervised the construction of the extension of the Northern Pscific railroad from here through Montana about 20 years ago and also built the N. Goldsboro, N. C .- "A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Etta A. Smith, "but gave me no relief. "I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms. "After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardul as a toric, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.
